

I am against any action that would change or override the Wisconsin Do Not Call List. Since our state law went into affect our life in our home has been returned to us. No more dealing with people and companies that were never invited by any of our family into the privacy of our lives. We deserve the right to control the privacy of our homes from the overbearing salesmanship of these uninvited calls. Thank you.